INFORMATION ITEM

1. Supplemental Benefits Retirees Reserve (SRBR) Funding Policy

Kathy Foster, Assistant CEO, reminded the Committee that the last time the Board reviewed and adopted the Liability Management Policy was in 2007. With the Board's approval, ACERA retained The Segal Company to provide consulting services to review and recommend amendments to the policy. The first phase of Segal's project was to review and make recommendations to ACERA's actuarial funding policy, which was completed in October 2012. Recently Segal began the second phase of this project to review the Contingency Reserve and the Supplemental Retiree Benefits Reserve (SRBR) funding policies.

Paul Angelo, Senior Vice President and Actuary, and Andy Yeung, Vice President and Associate Actuary, of The Segal Company, discussed the contingency reserve, the impacts of ACERA's current interest crediting policy on employer contributions, and the potential reporting changes based on Actuarial Standards of Practice (ASOP).
